foreword

In this forty-first edition of the Red and Black, we of the staff have endeavored to make a mirror—a mirror in which the reflections are to be kept in permanent form.

Through this looking glass, we visualize the many happy memories of teachers, fellow students, athletics, dances, and clubs. We also recall the fun, the successes, and the hardships during the school year 1958-1959.

To the seniors, these reflections are the completion of their educational life in Glens Falls Senior High. During the last year they have reached the biggest, the best, the greatest, and the absolute peak in our high school, being seniors. After the sweat and toil of the last three years, the Class of '59 looks to the future—a future which has separate and individual paths. There need be no fear of the future, however, for these three years have prepared them for adulthood. By glancing through this Red and Black, the seniors look back upon the last and the most important of these past three years.

Now let us all look through this mirror and reminisce through its reflections, of our lives in Glens Falls Senior High School.

Glens Falls' hurdle twins, Jock and Jack, are well in the lead, clearing the final hurdle in flying form.

Roger Scoville is a spectral devil in the Patrons' Evening play, "The Devil and Daniel Webster."

At least we're not losing "valuable" class time, says everyone during a third period bomb drill.

With blowing horns and screams of "Indians," the victory parade creeps down Bay Street after the St. Mary's game.

Happy Glens Falls rooters and dejected St. Mary's backers mingle at the popular dance after the game.

R. B. shows off his facility with the hula-hoop, and explains, "If my five-year-old can do it, I can, too!"

Curious ninth-graders get their first look at our cafeteria.

Height is no problem to these ingenious seniors, rushing to get the gym decorated for the Ball.

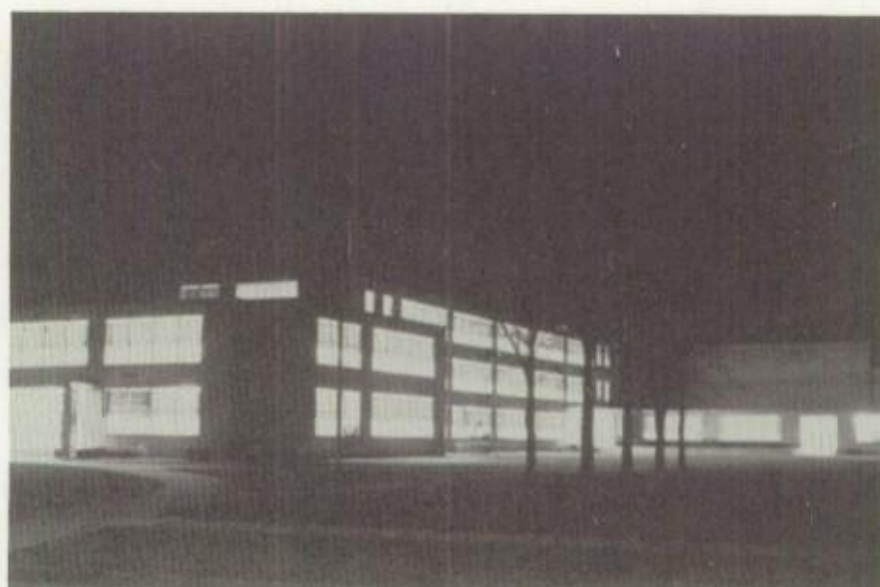

Rain doesn't seem to stop Bob, selling programs for the Student Council.

The busy Hi-Y gals cluster around the coke machine to fill up their candy and ice-cream boxes.

Lights blaze, as our school becomes the center for the adult education program.

Cheerleaders rouse Indian fans at East Field.

Jeff and John select records for an after game dance.

Set down, and ready, and one, and two . . . another exciting gridiron clash gets underway in boys' gym class.

"Easy does it!" says John to other members of the class of '59 as they decorate for their Junior Prom.

After finishing their victory banquet, the football squad converse about their very successful season.

Could this possibly be part of our football squad that completed an undefeated conference season?

Something really must be going on to distract these students from their appetizing lunches.

"Hit the brake!" shouts Mr. Arcoraci, as a driver training student veers toward a tree.

Flying Chris Prescott exhibits the style which won him the school record in the pole vault.

Ah! the beauties of nature. At least we're out of school.

Rubble and debris litters the storeroom which was quickly transformed into Put's new office.

After an Indian victory, the marching band plays our Alma Mater.

The hard-working girls sell refreshments for the Student Council at the football games.

Nervously watching the outcome of the J.V. game, the varsity awaits their turn on the court.

"Splendid shot, old chap." Laura Priscilla, and Nancy gave their applause to a successful shot.

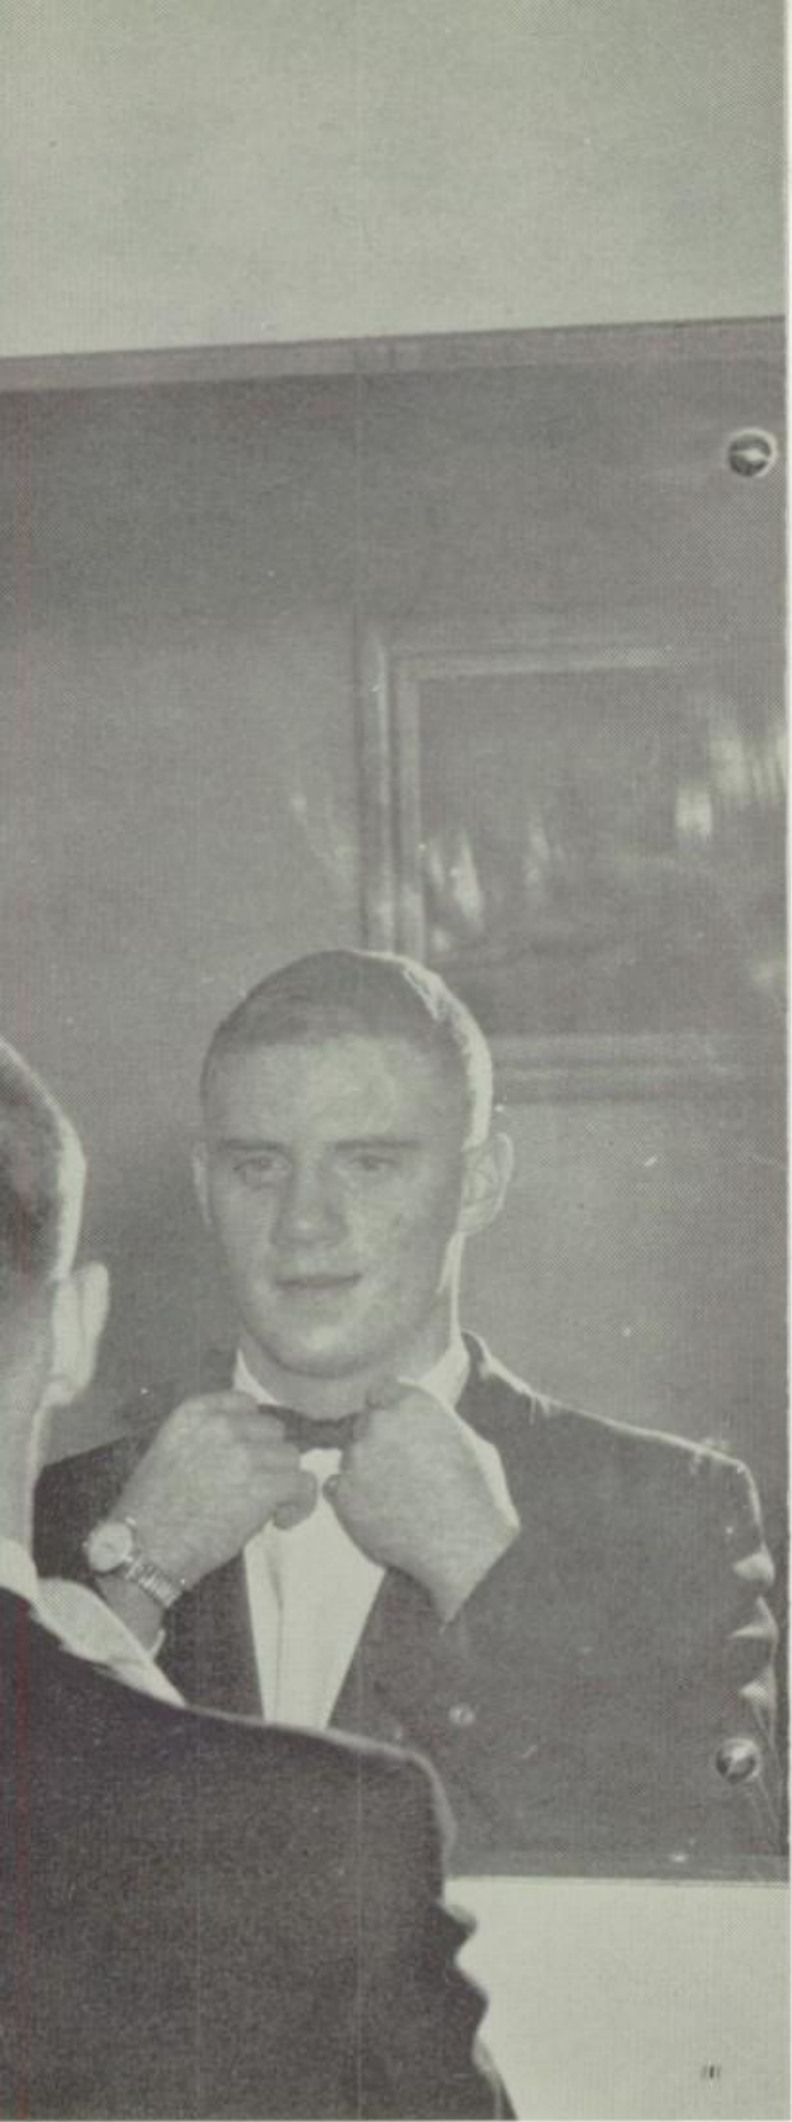

"Well, it's loud anyway!" The boys in the pep band provide support for an exciting rally in the gym.

Adding interest and a touch of glamour to our senior year were the special events mirrored in this section. Here we can look back upon the happy reflections of our dances, our plays, and our concerts.

And as we look back, we remember not only the shining finished products, but also the hours of work we put into making the concert or dance our best effort. Yes, out of the intense, fevered planning and decorating for dances, the endless, exhausting rehearsals for plays, and the tedious, but enjoyable hours of diligent practicing for concerts have come a real sense of accomplishment and the satisfaction of work well done.

Under stately columns are our beautiful queen and her court: Ellen Bush, Janice Dean, Jane Quille, Sue Reed, crown bearer Joey Backer, queen Joanne Spector, last year's queen Barbara Scott, crownbearer Laura Jane Wood, Priscilla Trimbey, and Laura Jane Tripp.

About to enjoy the refreshments served by the P.T.A. at the intermission party, are Lou Vamey, Mert Mock, and Joel Nisoff.

Our able co-chairmen, Diana Ham and Robert Sagan, competently supervised the decorating to produce unusual beauty at our Prom.

The climax of the evening came when the new queen's identity was announced. Our new queen, Joanne Spector, is crowned by last year's queen, Barbara Scott.

Just before the climax of the evening, all the couples promenaded in the traditional grand march.

Dancing the night away under the colorful streamers, these promenaders enjoyed a gala evening.

Guests at the Soph Hop throng the lobby during the intermission party provided by our PTA.

Now that these sophs have finished part of the decorations for the hop's "Hawaiian Sunset" theme, they seem to be wondering how to get the sun where it belongs.

In the ski lodge setting of the patron's corner are Mary Ziobrowski and Bob Salter, co-chairmen.

Decorators hastily construct an impromptu scene to cover up the north basket.

Sherwood, Faye, and Janice put the finishing touches on the picture corner.

While the orchestra platform is being completed the "boys" try their talent on the piano.

Pete and Liz complete their skating pond while Bob supervises.

Entering the fantasy which was constructed under their supervision are Susan Reed and Donald Tisinger, co-chairmen of the ball.

The last piece of Scotch tape goes onto the center attraction of the decorations.

Cokes and cookies, sold by Hi-Y during the intermission party in the cafeteria, are enjoyed by these couples.

This year's Spinster Swing, entitled Rhapsody in Red, was the most successful dance of the year. Attended by nearly 900 students, it attracted many from other schools. Dance music of a wide variety was provided by the Preludes.

A few couples, arriving early, are eager to start a gala evening.

Just starting their work, some more members of Hi-Y add streamers to the bandstand.

Pris Trimbey gets another small item to be checked on the already-full racks.

"The Devil and Daniel Webster" pleased the Patrons' Evening audience. Shown in one of a long series of rehearsals are Lois Wood, Roger Scoville, Bob Dingman, Leroy Akins, and Mrs. Stark, director.

Mrs. Thomas O'Brien and Mrs. Mae Maranville talk books with Mrs. Bush, librarian.

Mr. Bosworth and the Dingmans enjoy the evening.

"Miss Cricket, you're the only female lady I ever loved." This romantic scene took place during the Junior-Senior Dramatics Club presentation "For the Love of Allah." Parts were played by Tim Robinson, Rochelle Saidel, John Whitney, Barbara Aronson, Joanne VanDerwarker, and David Palmer.

Daveen Hansen, Barbara Wilson, and Betsy McNairy seemed terrified of Ronnie Baker as a burglar, but the girls and their mother, Michele Bedesem, end up turning the poor thief into a nervous wreck.

Bob Sagan performs a do-it-yourself appendix operation assisted by Joan Aurelia and Holly Lester. Entitled "The Handy Man," this skit was taken from a group of plays presented in the Phoenix Theatre in 1955.

Another skit in this group is "First Page," presented by Karen Mazer, Nancy Wright, Stuart Carter, Debbie Liddle, Janet Fletcher, and Carol True.

Joan Champagne and Laura Jane Tripp present a lively tap dancing routine entitled "Rapid Rhythm."

Gracefully dancing her way through a twirling routine, Barbara Burdo is "A Study in Black and White."

With lighted batons, Sue Gillan and Barbara Aronson start off Comedy Night with a sparkle.

The octet, consisting of Diana Ham, Marilyn Lance, Judy Joubert, Barbara Wilson, Jim Nesbitt, Stuart Carter, Kenny Baker, and Ronald Bader, sang Mr. Whitney's own composition "Holiday."

Baffling the audience are Deane Cappello and Lois Wood, in a charmingly Oriental magic show.

"Well, Buckley! Hear you're going to be a member of the family. We must get to know each other." These lines ignite the fuse under Mr. Banks as the seniors' comedy production opens.

senior orchestra

Members of the trumpet trio which performed Leroy Anderson's "Buglers' Holiday" are James Henry, Michael Clarke, John Howe.

The Senior Orchestra of 52 members, under the direction of Maurice C. Whitney, had a very successful year in 1958-1959. Eighteen members participated in the Area All-State Orchestra at the Queensbury School in November, and six were selected by audition for the Conference All-State Orchestra in Buffalo in January.

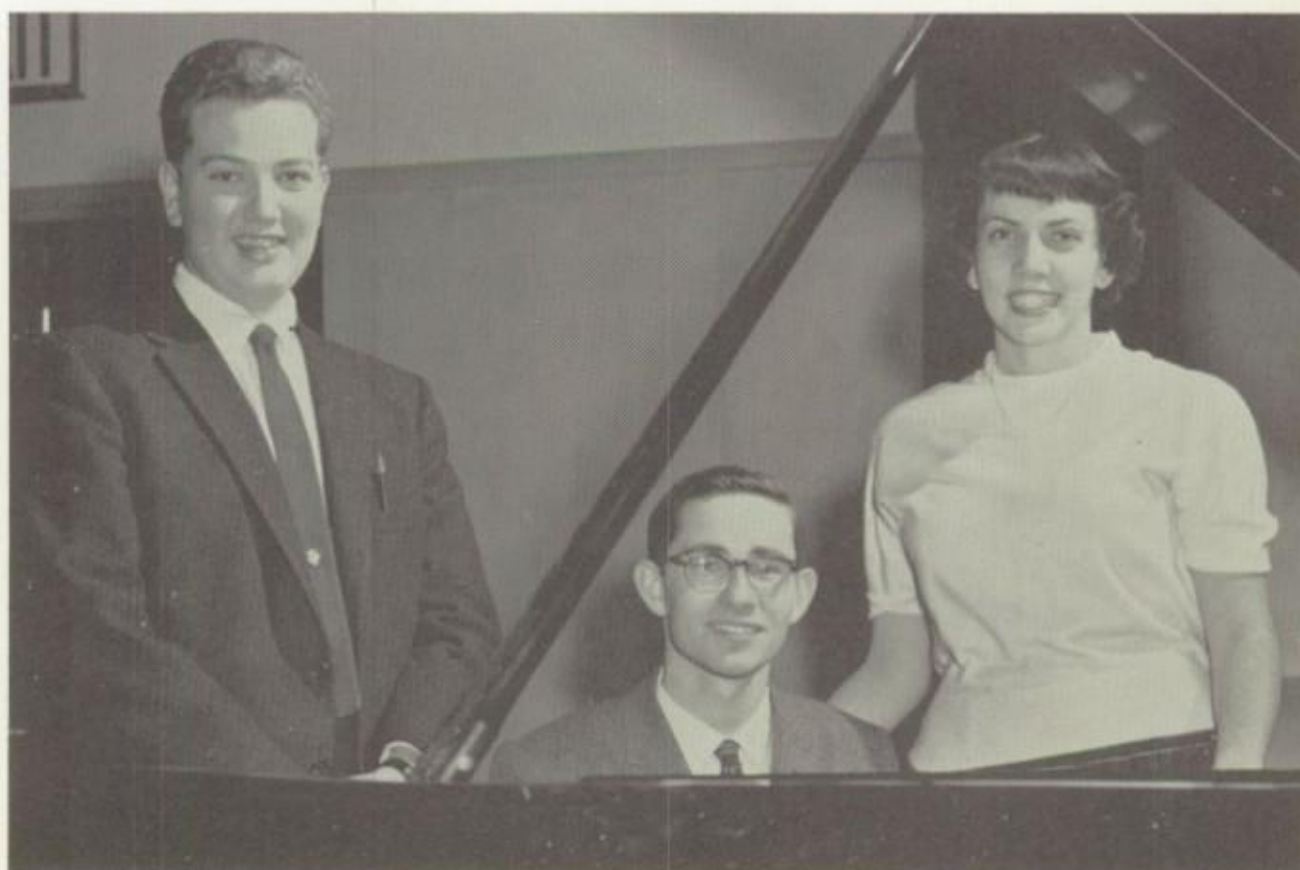

The orchestra received an "A" rating in Grade 5 at the State Competition-Festival at Ballston Spa last spring. An assembly program at the Junior High School and participation in Commencement were also features of the year's work.

Additional members are oboes: Stuart Carter, Judy Warner; violas: Michele Bedesem, Patty Winchell; cellos: Barbara Caswell, Linda Selinger; trumpets: James Henry, John Howe, Michael Clarke; bassoon: Rochelle Saidel; cellos: Susan Alexander, Cynthia Adams, Barbara Aronson, Marsha Fagan; French horns: Carolyn Jones, Anne Hallenbeck; trombones: Robert Hanks, Michael Woodbury; basses: Virginia Ziobrowski, John Scioli, Sara Cutshall, Grace Cullen, Martha Minster. Not pictured: Concertmistress Linda Holmquist, Lucille Hillman, Joan Champagne.

The high spot of each year is the annual orchestra concert, given with the assistance of the high school choir. This year's program included Beethoven's First Symphony, a Vivaldi Concerto Grosso (strings), "Stradella" Overture by Flotow, Highlights from "My Fair Lady," "Bugler's Holiday" by Anderson, and the Mozart "Gloria" with the choir. Linda Holmquist, John Whitney, and Linda Selinger were soloists in the Vivaldi work.

The members of the concert band are flutes: Emily Williams, Faye Rivers, Judy Streeter, Ann Warren; clarinets: Sandra Lee Phillips, Philip Lange, Betty Beaman, Holly Lester; second row: Prudy Selleck, Kay Duers, John Williams, Dotty Murray, Marsha Fagan; third row: Wendy Glass, Shari Wells, Gwen Warner, Lee Hastings, Doug Gardner, Gary Mock, alto clarinets: Sue Unger, Carole Singer; oboe: Stuart Carter; bass clarinet: Carol Hanna; bassoon: Rochelle Saidel; French horns: Anne Hallenbeck, Carolyn Jones; percussion: Joan Champagne, Veronica Fuller, Michele Bedesem, Lois Puricelli, John Van Derwarker, Donald Tisinger, James Streeter.

Looking over the program with Mr. Gericke are James Henry, assistant manager; Gary Quick, librarian; Judy Streeter, manager; John Whitney, treasurer; Sandra Lee Phillips, secretary; and Stuart Carter, quartermaster.

Following its very successful year in 1958, when it received straight "A" ratings at festival, the concert band set out to achieve similar success this year. Twelve members attended the Area All-State and five went to Buffalo for the Conference All-State.

The highlight of the band's performances this year was the annual concert. Well-attended by an appreciative audience, the program showed the results of our school's high standards in music. Other appearances the band made were at the Kensington School, Junior High School, and the spring festival.

Our marching Indians contributed much to the support of the football team and were the high spot of the victory parades. Their snappy uniforms and top performance added a lot to the games at which they played. To provide entertainment at half-time, they presented various routines. During the year, they also marched in the Halloween and Memorial Day parades.

Looking pert and enthusiastic in leading the band are our twirlers Sandy Lee Phillips; Sue Gillan, head twirler; Barbara Burdo, drum majorette; Joan Aurelia; and Barbara Aronson.

SPORTS!

The thud of the kickoff—the shrill of the referee's whistle—the crack of the starter's pistol. All these things we remember from our season of undefeated Conference play in football, basketball, and baseball.

To the football players goes the memory of hard practices and rainy day games when the elusive pigskin became even more slippery. As spectators we recall the clamor of such close basketball games as Mont Pleasant, Fort Edward, and Hudson Falls. We also remember our boys who grappled for honors on the newly formed varsity wrestling team. Spring found us participating in track, baseball, golf, tennis, and girls' softball.

Now let us look back into these reflections of athletics which will bring to memory the many exciting, close, and unforgettable contests.

It doesn't appear too likely that this play will go for another touchdown. However, this sort of thing didn't happen too often, as the Indians scalped Whitehall 57-7.

fight on to victory

The Indian football eleven had an outstanding season, going undefeated in conference play and suffering the only loss to a powerful C.B.A. team of Albany in a non-conference game. Throughout the season, the offense struck with a devastating ground attack while a tough defensive unit incessantly had the opponents bottled up. The overpowering victories were gained by a good sized forward wall which tore open holes in the opponents' line, offensively and defensively, and paved the way for the fleet running backfield to operate. The touchdown twins, Mock and Burnell, provided the Tribe with a double-barreled scoring punch. Also of great help was the fine running of VanGarderen and the superb ball handling of Geroux. The forward line spearheaded by Derby, Varney, Salter, Hallett, and French pushed all obstacles out of the way. Instrumental in the defensive unit were Fratus, Chagnon, Tucker, Stone, Buecking and Streeter. The Indians closed their gridiron season in a stunning performance against their crosstown rival, St. Mary's. Having the pigskin offensively for only 11 carries, the Indians led at the half, 14-6. The Tribe captured the Northern Conference Championship and the City Series Crown by defeating the Kerries 20-13.

Fullback Bill Burnell, on one of his many plunges, gains vital yardage at East Field in the City Series game, in which Glens Falls overcame St. Mary's 20-13.

The crowd anxiously looks upward to see if the Indians will increase their lead over St. Mary's as the eleven attempt an extra point. The point is good and the Tribe now has a substantial seven-point lead.

Preparing for the big game Saturday, the Indians run through some of their offensive plays. The next day the tribe trounced Corinth 27-0.

Hard work and much effort has to be exerted during every practice to have the team in top condition. Here Lucky Varney and Jack Usher throw body blocks on practice dummies.

Glens Falls substitutes, along with Dick Backer, attentively watch the Indian eleven strive against St. Mary's. Although Putt looks rather depressed during a phase of the game, the team put in a fine performance.

"Don't let him get away" the Glens Falls supporters yell, as a St. Mary's ball carrier advances toward the Indians' goal line.

The Glens Falls Indians for the second straight season completed an undefeated conference season to become the Northern Conference Champions and to capture the City Series crowns.

During the last season, the Tribe completed a record of 16 victories and only two losses, both at the hands of Mont Pleasant, a Class "A" school. In the scoring column, the Indians had a total of 1046 points compared to 846 scored by their opponents. Three tall boys, Dick Derby, Jim Streeter, and Dave McDowell, gave the Indians invaluable rebounding strength. Dick Derby demonstrated his scoring ability as he was top scorer for the Tribe in all 18 contests. Calvin Tucker, who was moved up to varsity after scoring 33 points in the home J.V.-Mont Pleasant game, showed remarkable ball handling both offensively and defensively. Other players instrumental in the victories were John Carusone, Bruce Geroux, Lucky Varney, and Terry Gates.

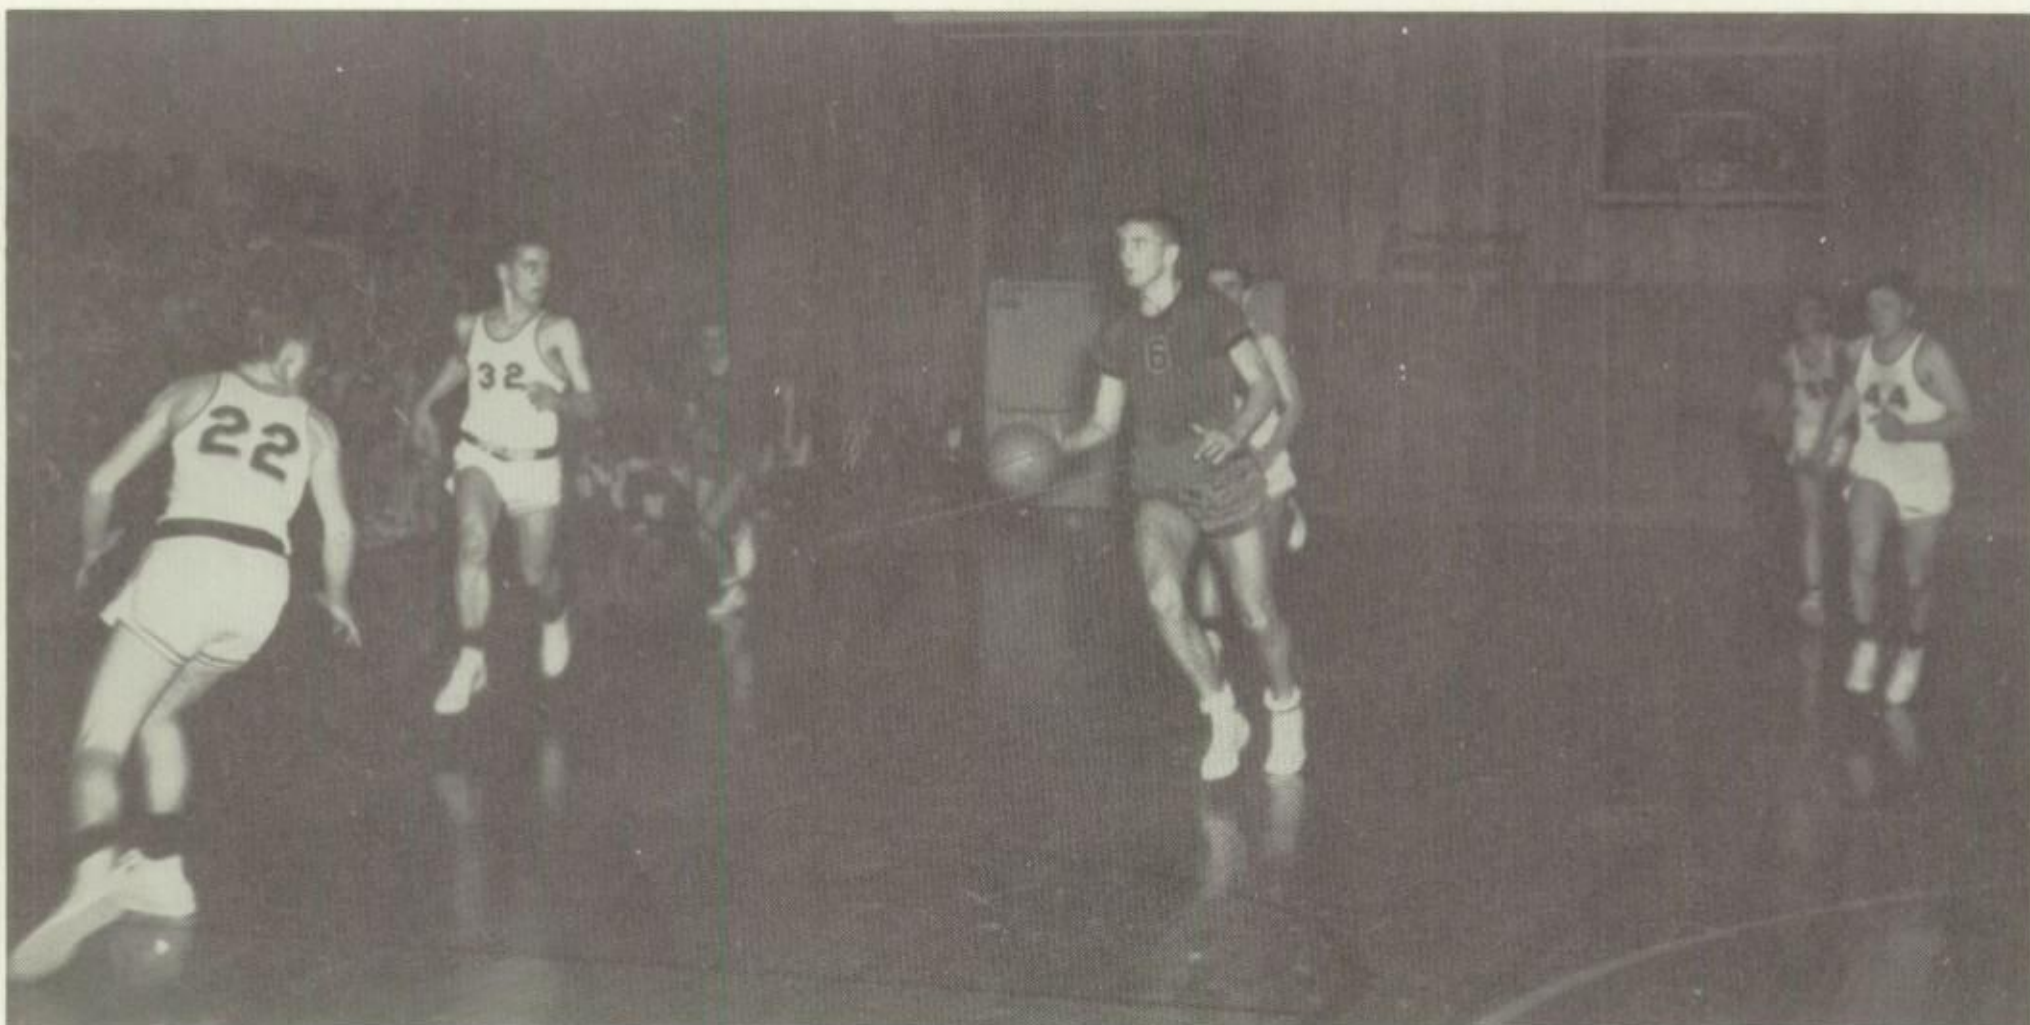

During a time out, Coach "Putt" LaMay gives instructions to the Indian quintet. The Tribe scalped the Tigers 50-46 in what turned out to be, perhaps, the most exciting game of the season. This win was the Indians' 27th straight victory in conference play.

j. v. basketball

The J.V. basketball team had a very successful season ending with a 16-2 overall record, losing only to St. Mary's and Mont Pleasant. Members of the team are, kneeling, Pat Wright, Chris Roberts, Kenneth Seeber, Dick Stone, and Dave Clark; standing, Coach Harold Williams, Gerald Chandler, Mike Deamas, Mike Canale, Abe Norman, John Kokoletsos, Chris Hallenbeck, and Phil McDowell, manager. Mid-way through the season Harold Williams took over the coaching position which was left vacant when Dick Backer started supervising the wrestling team.

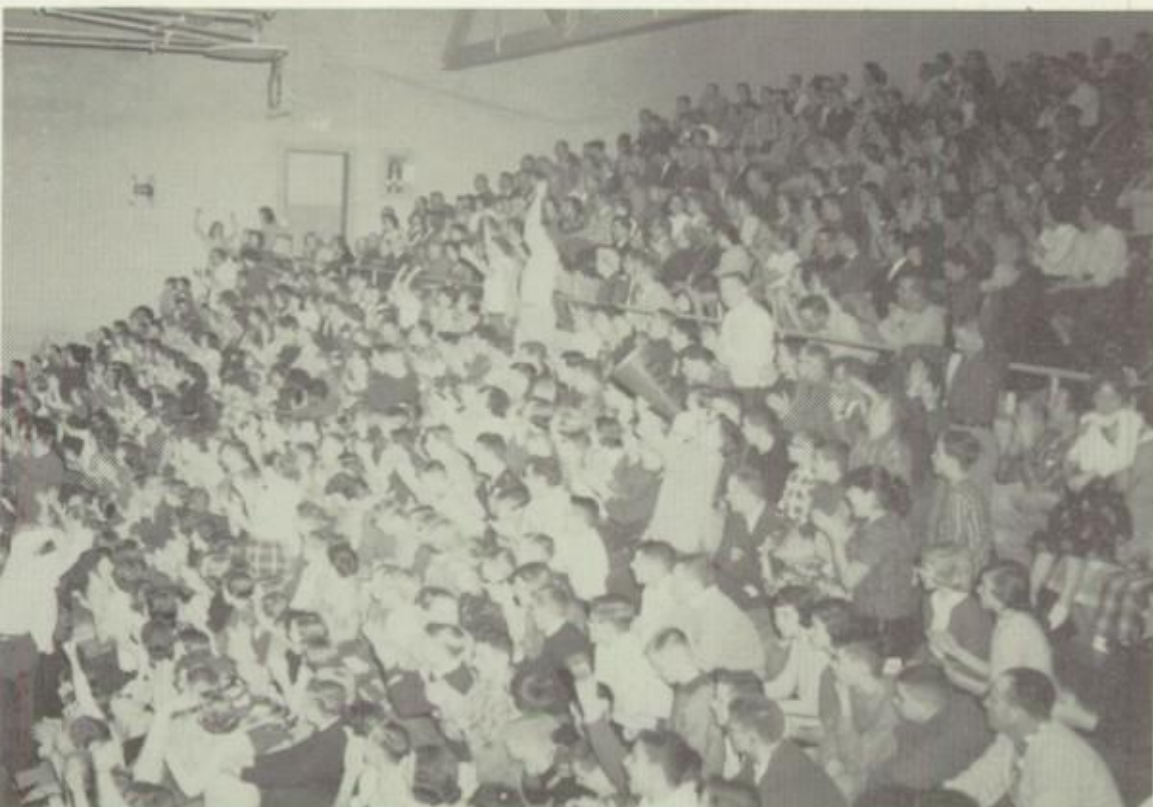

Bringing the ball up court, Dick Derby finds that he has only one opponent to get by to have a clear shot at the basket.

Dave McDowell, using a hook shot, scores two more points in the Hudson Falls game while Jim Streeter and Dick Derby wait for an anticipated rebound.

The Indian quintet look on as they see their lead become even smaller in a thrilling contest in which the Tribe emerged victorious.

"Go! Indians, Go!" resounds through the Glens Falls gymnasium filled with a capacity crowd in the Glens Falls-Hudson Falls game.

Jumping high, Dave McDowell sinks another two points to increase the Indians' lead over the Tigers.

Two St. Mary's players hopelessly look on as Dick Derby shows his fingertip control.

Tension relaxes as Glens Falls takes a foul shot. The Tribe scalped the, so far, undefeated Tigers in what turned out to be one of the most thrilling games of the season.

The Glens Falls nine enjoyed an extremely successful season in 1958 under the expert guidance of Coach Dick Backer. They emerged with a 14-2 record, losing only to St. Mary's and Mont Pleasant. They were the undefeated champions of the Northern Conference and also win the City Series.

Our offensive was led by the booming bats of Tom Scull (.367), John Carusone (.429), Al Read (.364), and Terry Gates (.310). The pitching corps was headed by Tony Gorry, who finished the season with seven wins and only one defeat. Gary Prevost, with a 3-1 record, and Jeff Hallett, who fashioned a perfect 3-0 record, comprised the pitching staff.

Indicative of the team's calibre of play was its success against Class "A" schools such as Mont Pleasant and Amsterdam. To close its season on a winning note, the team turned back Amsterdam 1-0.

Gorry belts one out and leaves the catcher looking at an empty glove.

Glenn Rogers rounds third base on his way to rack up a run.

The Glens Falls squad and spectators tensely watch their opponents warm up out on the diamond.

This year Glens Falls again dominated the Hudson River League, winning the title with four victories and one loss. Co-captains Dick Lennox and Andy Scarpellino were the winner and runner-up in the Hudson River Singles Tourney, respectively, and combined to win the doubles. We also qualified for the sectionals. The lettermen were co-captain and school cup champion Dick Lennox, co-captain Andy Scarpellino, Peter Keene, David Schlesinger, Joel Nisoff, and Marty Swirsky.

track and field '58

The Glens Falls cindermen raced through the 1958 season with an impressive display of improvement. Rallying from defeat at the hands of South High, the Indians easily won the Saratoga Invitational meet. At the sectionals, Glens Falls tied for first place with Columbia High School. Although spiked during his race, Jack VanGarderen finished his leg of the relay to help bring his three companions in first, a deed which enabled us to capture the coveted Section Two cup.

With only three more hurdles left, Mert appears to have a favorable lead as the Glens Falls Invitationals get underway.

With a hop and a mighty heave, Earl strains to score against the St. Mary's squad.

Sparked by varsity men Smith and Prevost, the Glens Falls harriers racked up a good season in five meets. Even the failure of Roscoe's flying carpet during a rain storm failed to prevent the Glens Falls runners from taking second spot at Gloversville. Highlighting the season was the capture of sixth place in the sectional's Class "B" group.

Dual meet: Scotia, 26; Glens Falls, 29
 Grout meet: Eighth of 14 teams
 Cobleskill meet: Third of eight teams
 Gloversviller meet: Second of three teams
 Section 2 championship meet: Sixth of Class "B" entries

Members of the cross country team warm up with jumping jacks.

Cheerleaders turned singers? Anyway, this septet entertains at the football banquet.

j. v. cheerleaders

These peppy J.V. cheerleaders, who cheered in the St. Mary's football game and in J.V. basketball games, are Ellen Winer, Jane Greenburg, Lee Binley, Daveen Hansen, Gwen Warner, Pam Trimbey, and Katie Colson.

boys' intramural champions

The determined team from 211 won the boys' intramural basketball championship with a record of 6 wins and a tie with 216. Members of the team are Coach "Putt" Lamay, Captain Howard Chandler, Doug Bloomfield, Gary Charlebois, Jim Dorsey, Mack Dean, Louis Epstein, Alfred Fish, and James Caldwell.

In our mirror of the past, the '59 Red Black, we recall our clubs and outside activities—those things which give school life and color. Who can forget a chilly hike with the Outing Club, or an experiment which the Science Club failed to execute properly. Through such organizations as the Art Club, we have left indelible traces of our passing in paintings and sculptures. In these ways, we not only gain for ourselves, but also helped to enrich the school.

Although there are many types of clubs, they are all united in a common goal—that of furthering student interest in hobbies and providing recreation. We feel that through this program we have gained a greater insight into the realm of our particular endeavor. Thus, we prepare to face the world with a broader and richer background.

editorial board

red and black typing staff

The homeroom circulation managers, Barbara Noonan, Roger Scoville, Earl Fratus, Louis Varney, and Janice Dean, had the job of selling and distributing the 1959 Red and Blacks.

Promoting good sportsmanship and fellowship between the players and spectators of Glens Falls High School and those of the opponent high school is the main purpose of the Varsity "G" Club. The numerous activities of this club, include checking hats and coats, ushering, selling programs, helping to run track meets, and sponsoring seven dances after home basketball games. Financed by the club's earnings, the senior members go to New York for the purpose of increasing their knowledge in the skills of athletics and to increase their cultural background.

Looking over information on different football scoreboards, one of which is to be bought for the school, are Jeff Hallett, treasurer; Earl Fratus, president; "Putt" LaMay, adviser; Bill Burnell, vice president; and Dick Derby, secretary.

In this junior democracy, the Student Council works for the good of the school by representing the student body. world affairs forum

At the beginning of the year, Forum meetings were devoted to lively discussions on current events. The club then turned to the UN as its area of interest. Many members met faithfully after school to study with Mr. Long for a special UN exam. In the spring, the club conducted a model United Nations Security Council which included delegates from area schools.

Glens Falls High School this year again had the pleasure of becoming acquainted with students from foreign lands. These students, Yuen Chooi Yeng from Singapore, and Hope Allison from Nigeria, spent two weeks here staying in students' homes and visiting the school. Pictured are Roger Scoville, Miss Dodds, Hope Allison, Yuen Chooi Yeng, Maratha Minnick, and Mr. Long.

To be inducted into the National Honor Society, a student must exemplify the four cardinal objectives of the organization: scholarship, character, leadership, and service. In October and February, in the most impressive assembly of the year, the lights are dimmed and students worthy of membership are tapped from the audience. Upon acceptance into the society, inductees are presented with pins by the P.T.A.

There are three opportunities for students to be chosen for membership. In February, juniors are inducted if their average is at least 3.7. Then, seniors are inducted in October if they have an average of 3.5, and in February, if the average is 3.2.

Candles lighted, the Honor Society begins its traditional march from the auditorium at the conclusion of the induction ceremony.

Members of the Honor Society who were inducted in their junior year are Secretary Glen Jeckel, President Rochelle Saidel, Vice President James Henry, and Treasurer Arnold O'Brien.

Outing Club members strive for a greater appreciation of nature by participating in two types of activities. Monthly meetings provide educational and entertaining programs such as movies, archery and gun safety demonstrations, and guest speakers. The overnight trip to Mt. Marcy on Memorial Day climaxes the outdoor activities which include hikes to Black Mountain and Long Island, a winter slide at the Country Club, and a work project at the Girl Scout Camp.

The officers of one of the largest and most active groups in our school are Steve Chagnon, Bob Shanahan, Kit Roberts, Daveen Hansen, and Betty Beaman. Not pictured are Libby Hodgkins and Mitch Gause.

Row one: Jean De Graff, Joan Hanna, Arlene Hodgson, Shirley Oudekerk, Sally Clear, Daveen Hansen, Bonnie Bennett, Beverly Ernst, Bob Shanahan, Steve Chagnon, Charis La Fontaine, Betty Beaman, Bonnie Finnan, Carol Hanna, Angie Capone, Carol Brown, Kit Roberts, adviser, Alan Cederstrom; row two: Pam Slayton, Sharon Floyd, Penny Hart, Clara Graves, Jane Lamoy, Ruth LaPointe, Karen Slayton, Leone Shine, Jewel Smith, Joan Rivette, Pat Rumrill, Sandra Schmidt, Sharon Wales, Liz Ramsey, Susan Reed, Kenny Seeber, Mike Woodbury, Charles Perkett; row three: Susan Varney, Sandra La-Fontaine, Sonja Persson, Prudy Selleck, Sue Unger, Donna Ingraham, Sandra Phillips, Margo Judson, Ann Kendall, Diana Barton, Joan Noonan, Janet MacDonald, Karen Mazer, Marsha Fagan, Louann Kassner, Sue Lamoy; row four: Clifford Bliss, Betty Viehmann, Betty Tupper, Marcia Oudekerk, Elaine Hillman, Alfred Robinson, Dick Kenny, Dick Randall, Ray Blondin, Joe Langdon, Ron Perry, Linda Oberst, Sue Ridley, Mary Ringwood, Phyllis Parrington, Rita Rozell; row five: Gary Benway, Dottie Murray, Linda Stewart, Irene Alkes, Sandy Barber, Fred Oberst, Louise Heckendorn, Ronnie Newell, Dick Bartholomew, Monroe Newell, Bob Hutchinson, Irwin Kantrowitz, Dave Halladay, Garry Hamlin, Di LaFay, Rhoda Lazarou; row six: Sue Collin, Bonnie Zalutsky, Janet Fletcher, Gwen Warner, Anne Hallenbeck, Jane Greenberg, Carolyn Jones, Pam Trimbey, Sherry Wells, Lee Hastings, Roseanna Combs, Ethel Philo, Pat Wiswall, Kathy Walker, Portia Shaw, Nancy Sakayan, Donna Lewis, Jon Hurwitz; row seven: Bud LaRose, Edmond Parrow, Katie Colson, Judy Warner, Wendy Glass, Vickie Ziobrowski, Mitch Gause, Libby Hodgson, Matt Clark, Judy French, Dave Parker, Ann Gause, Jana Fahey, Cindy Kingsley, Carol Baker, Bill Patten, Walt Harrison, Dave Eastwood.

"Oh, boy, it's time to eat!" Half way up Buck Mountain a short rest and a quick snack are just the thing.

The climb up has been long and exhausting, but we're finally here. We're just about on top of the world.

speakers' corps

The members of Speakers' Corps, who studied extensively and then spoke to various community groups on phases of the world situation are, first row: Joan Aurelia, Debbie Liddle, Barbara Aronson, Barbara Wilson, Holly Lester, Karen Rossiter, Betty Beaman, Pat Winchell; second row: Joyce Landau, John Whitney, Daveen Hansen, Mack Dean, Lucille Hillman, Anne Warren, Peggy Lyman, Kathy Walker, Barbara Bosworth; third row: Billie Blackman, Sue Keene, Catherine Tucker, Michele Bedesem, Sonja Persson, Dorayne Lembke, Judy VanBenthuyssen, Chuck Elms, Carol True, Joe Drew; fourth row: Joel Grossman, Denny Vogel, Steve Nathan, Larry Nassivera, Bob Sagan, Jim Wein, Bob McMillan.

medicine men

Under the able direction of Stanley Gericke, our Medicine Men played at several dances during the year, and their solid playing was liked by all. Our bass player Martha Minster, the first girl to participate in dance band, did a fine job. First row: Paget Newbury, Phil Lange, Al Suckman, Mert Mock, Joel Grossman; second row: Jim Nesbitt, adviser Stanley Gericke, Martha Minster, Phil McDowell, Mike Clark, Jim Henry, John Howe; third row: John Vanderwarker, Don Tisinger, Ted McLouth, John Whitney, Bob Hanks.

Joanne makes a valiant attempt to reach third, in a game with St. Mary's Academy.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Club is to encourage the participation of after-school sports, including field hockey, volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis, and swimming. To become a member of the club, a girl must compile 40 points, which she earns by participating in sports. She may also win a G.A.C. letter if she has received 90 points or a chenille "G" with 130 points.

This year the club planned for two Play Days, basketball and softball. During the fall, the club played two area schools in field hockey. G.A.C. officers are president, Ellen Bush; treasurer, Sue Reed; secretary, Kathy Reardon.

By playing bingo, presenting skits, singing, and participating in "quiz shows," while always speaking French, the members of le Cercle Francais furthered their knowledge of French while having fun. Members are, row one: Joan Kokoletsos, Barbara Bosworth, Sue Keene, Debbie Liddle, Ellen Winer, Carole Singer, Marjorie Belgrade, Mary Ziobrowski, Rochelle Saidel, Janice Dean, Ellen Bush, Betty Helm, Sue Howland; row two: Sue Alexander, Bob Sagan, Faye Fletcher, Carol Simpson, Mitsi Minnick, John Carusone, Miss Ann Cromie, adviser; Gene Nathan, Cynthia Adams, Louise Heckendorn, Michele Bedesem, Bonnie Abbott; row three: Betsey McNairy, Barbara Caswell, Holly Lester, Catherine Tucker, Wendy Boucher, Barbara Aronson, Carol True, Sue Stern, Tina Howard, Gretchen Steenburgh, Melody Wood, Sheila Novitsky, Marilyn Lance, Carol Hanna; row four: Michael Clark, Paul Nason, Joe Drew, Joel Grossman, Jim Streeter, Steve Nathan, Kathy Reardon, Emily Williams, Priscilla Trimbe, Robin Searles.

Examining some French puppets are Gene Nathan, secretary; Cindy Roberts, vice president; Mitsi Minnick, treasurer; Miss Ann Cromie, adviser; John Carusone, president.

This year our French Club was indeed active. Again we supported a school in Haiti by sending them proceeds from our food sale and from our personal donations.

The French Club was also asked to give an assembly. After being organized and planned for over three months, the program consisted of three skits on the different proceedings of each year in a French class.

Certainly none of this could have been possible without the fine co-operation of the members or the "l'esprit" they demonstrated.

Sprechen Sie Deutsch? The members of the German Club do, because their meetings are held in German.

Throughout the school year, fun and entertainment was provided by a variety of games, musical programs, and movies. One of the highlights of the year was the talk presented by Mr. Hans Hartung on the World's Fair. All of the programs helped the members gain more knowledge of German living and culture.

Officers of the German Club are president, Adolf Meyer; vice president, Robert Salter; treasurer, Jon Pangborn; and secretary, Laura Jane Tripp.

"The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community higher standards of Christian character." Every Hi-Y girl tries to live up to these words from Hi-Y's charter by earning money for scholarships of $100 to be presented to girls at graduation.

To raise money, Hi-Y sponsored several successful dances which included the Student Mixer, the Hat Hop—a new dance at which students wore unusual hats, and the Spinster Swing.

Other Hi-Y projects were a coffee and doughnut sale at the fall teachers' convention, a food sale, and a car wash.

Hi-Y owes its success in raising money for scholarships to the support the student body has given it.

Because we saw them every day, the images of our teachers won't fade. But our reflections must go beyond our school—to our superintendent and the Board of Education. Working with our school administrators and faculty, the Board has made our entire education possible.

To our teachers, superintendent, and Board of Education we extend our appreciation and gratitude.

DR. DOUGLASS R. ROBERTS
Superintendent

Without the cooperation of our Board of Education and our superintendent, Dr. Roberts, our school would not be the wonderful place it is.

In many ways, their efforts have benefited us greatly. Their decision to build a new grade school, to add to another, and to improve still others will eventually help high school by giving students an opportunity for better preparation.

Because the Board of Education and Dr. Roberts have given many of their valuable hours, we offer them our sincere thanks.

Perhaps the clearest and most vivid reflections are those of our friends. With our classmates and underclassmen, we have shared work and play, hopes and dreams, and smiles and tears. These friendships have become a real and important part of our life.

In our classrooms, we have had the chance to wonder and question, the opportunity to study and learn, and the occasion to broaden and compare our ideas through discussion.

In looking at these reflections, we remember our many friends, some of whom we have known from our earliest kindergarten days and others for only a few years; and the many happy moments that we spent with them.

senior class history

Cheers arise from the group of seniors as we pass from being students to the honor of being alumni. Our main ambition of the past three years has been fulfilled — we are graduating and going on to college or to work in our separate fields. The only trouble is that we now realize what a wonderful experience attending Glens Falls High School has been, and that we are going to miss our old friends and teachers, and the classes, the dances, the athletics, and the various clubs which made up our school life. We look backward on our final year in Senior High and hope that we have left a worthwhile record of achievements.

Our class has been well managed throughout the last three years. To Miss Mable, Miss Broadbent, and Miss Adriance we are most sincerely thankful for their understanding, their patience, their wise and kindly counsels in all our problems, and their untiring interest in our well being. We have also had good administration through our class officers. As sophomores we selected Priscilla Trimbey, John Carusone, James Henry, and Roger Scoville. We felt sure that when we elected, as Junior class officers, Robert Salter, John Carusone, Janice Dean, and Meredith Mock, they would represent our class as never before. And as seniors, we had the combined leadership of Jeffrey Hallet, Louis Varney, Ellen Bush, Jane Quille, and Faye Fletcher.

The Class of '59 has shared widely in many activities. Athletically, our boys were the mainstay of our teams. Last year's championship football squad depended heavily upon our class for its undefeated conference season. On the stage "The Mystery of Mouldy Manor," "The Devil and Daniel Webster," and "Father of the Bride," saw our classmates bring much enjoyment to large audiences. In music, our band and orchestra presented noteworthy concerts and also took high ratings in competition. Well attended, our class dances were social and financial successes. As we reflect on the past three years we realize our class has been truly active.

Finally, our last day of being students in Senior High came on a never to be forgotten Class Day. As we now look forward to the next steps in our career, we carry with us pleasant memories of our history in Glens Falls High School.

CYNTHIA ADAMS

A "Maine" girl all the way, Cynthia is always being kidded about her accent. Her ability on the stage has added much to many dramatic productions.

junior class history

In September, we again entered Senior High, now as exuberant juniors instead of shy sophomores. Once again, we were ready to start an exciting year in our new place in school life.

We felt great joy in seeing many of our members participating in the school sports program. Proudly we watched Dick Derby, Steve Nathan, and Bruce Geroux doing their part on the gridiron in gaining for us the Northern Conference Championship. A few months later, our class was again well represented, this time in basketball, by Dave McDowell, Dick Derby, Bruce Geroux, and Jim Streeter. On the sidelines, Kathy Reardon, Debbie Liddle, Karen LaMay, Daveen Hansen, and Pat Selleck led the student body in yelling, "Yea, team."

One of our most important events was the day our class rings came. How excited we were wearing them! The long time spent in choosing them was well worth while.

Spring brought us our first formal, the Junior Prom. After the Sophomore Hop, we felt we had experience in decorating and would make our Prom truly a dance never to be forgotten.

And now that our junior year has sped by, we realize, as we look back, the good friends, hard work, and much fun we encountered. We feel confident that our senior year will be a big success.

sophomore class history

Our sophomore class entered Senior High School on September 3 with enthusiasm and high hopes for the future. Although bewildered at first, we soon became accustomed to the school and its routine.

Under the supervision of Miss Bazinet, our class adviser, we began our first and biggest event of the year, the Sophomore Hop. The "Hawaiian Sunset" was a big success, and everyone had a superb time.

Many members of our class were active in sports. During the football season, we starred Garry Hamlin, Dick Stone, and "Short" Chandler. Calvin Tucker represented the sophomore class as he sparked in varsity basketball. Many of the other boys participated in jayvee sports. Gwen Warner, Katie Colson, Pam Trimbey, Jane Greenburg, and Lee Binley all helped promote school spirit as junior varsity cheerleaders.

In other extracurricular activities, our class was well represented in music and dramatics. But most important of all, a very large percentage of the sophomore class attained the Honor Roll. This clearly illustrates the high scholastic standards which our class tries to maintain.

All in all, the sophomores have had a very exciting year in Senior High School, and we are all looking forward to bigger and better things as juniors.

Painting posters offers new creative possibilities to the art class.

reflections

Future draftsmen find a free moment during a mechanical drawing class to work on their own projects.

The gals in homemaking class practice their skills under realistic conditions.

The girls in the secretarial practice class look like the efficient workers they soon will be.

Mr. Shultz's business math class appears to be engrossed in a difficult problem.

This large, active business law class eagerly awaits the next words of wisdom from Miss Gahimer.

"Gallia est omnis divisa in partes tres" seems to confuse these hard-working students of Miss Bazinet.

"Well, all right! It doesn't make a particle of difference," says Miss Mable, as she goes through the homework with her trig class.

Under Walt Robinson's supervision, the boys become skilled in operating the lathes.

Miss Wentworth's English IV class is enthusiastically taking another of her vocabulary tests.

Nuggets of knowledge from Mr. Dwyer add interest to this class.

The sounds are beautiful as Mr. Whitney directs the orchestra through a sight reading of Beethoven's First.

Mike Canale, our golden voiced orator, delivers a speech on the intricacies of the "T" square.

Get ready, get set, go! and the typing class is off on more dictation.

Something Miss Cromie said to her French III students brings about varied reactions.

"Will he hit it or miss it" seems to be the question as a driver ed. class watches a movie.

These reflections of our high school years would not have been possible without the help of the businessmen of this community. With great cooperation and understanding, they have supported this book and helped us in many other ways.

Whenever we needed props for the stage or decorations for dances, the merchants of Glens Falls came to our rescue. By offering part-time and summer jobs to high school students, they helped us earn money and also learn trades.

We are truly grateful to the businessmen of Glens Falls.

for JUNE GRADUATES...

Glennie, the elf-like individual who personalizes the history, tradition and friendliness of the Glens Falls Insurance Company, offers sincere congratulations to the graduates of the class of 1959.

He recalls his own school days and subsequent entrance into the Glens Falls family of employees. "I was fortunate," says Glennie, "to have chosen a career with a growing company where my work has been steady and where there's always opportunity for advancement."

He hopes that many young men and women in the class of '59 will consider visiting or writing the Glens Falls about post-high school or post-college careers in our continually expanding insurance business.

334 Bay Street

Glen shows John and Tom some of the interesting parts of this grinding machine at U. S. Catheter.

Congratulations to the Class of 1959

Best wishes to each of you for success, health and happiness.

You know now how important education is. You realize that knowledge is power . . . accomplishment . . . and one of life's biggest joys.

The quest of knowledge is inherent in mankind. Besides the advantages of attending courses in institutions of higher learning, it is equally important to keep abreast of the times, of life, of the future. One complements the other. That is why we commend you to your daily newspaper, where facts and opinions are another form of knowledge and information.

Read your newspaper; be informed; keep learning.

"Anchors Away" say Donna and Lucky sitting in this new speed boat from the Lake George Marina, Inc.

Martha, Tis, Janice, Pris and Bob being granted a loan for college by Mr. C. A. Scriver, Vice President of our bank.

College Costs Are Rising!

In 1940 the average yearly cost of a year at a private college was $1023. Today, it costs $2047—or more than twice as much!

Most families cannot afford this kind of expense out of current income. If you need help in meeting college expenses, we suggest you do as many other young people are doing—ask First National Bank about a low-cost tuition loan with payments spread out to fit the family budget.

When it comes to borrowing, come to First National first.
